

Annual chamber dinner set for Jan. 16

December 31, 2007 - 10:00PM

The Greater Seymour Chamber of Commerce will hold its 76th annual dinner Jan.16 at the Pines Evergreen Room starting with a reception at 5:30 p.m.

Each year the chamber identifies four individuals and one business for special recognition.

The recipients of the 2007 recognitions are George Graessle as Small Business Owner of the Year Award, Bobby Eldridge as the Rising Star Award, Bob Sexton as the Teacher of the Year Award, Don Myers Sr. as the Citizenship Award and The Andersons as the Corporate Citizenship Award.

“The chamber is honored to be able to recognize these individuals and this company for their significant contributions in making Seymour and Jackson County the great place it is to live,” chamber President Bill Bailey said.

The keynote speaker of the evening will be Tim Hosey of Timothy Hosey and Associates.

“Tim was the keynote speaker at our Tri-County Business Expo in September and his comments on the identified trends that will dramatically affect business in the next few years was outstanding,” Bailey said. “His talk is very informative, interesting and eye-opening.”

You may make your reservations for dinner by calling the chamber office, 522-3681.
